MYSTERY UNWOUND BY THE ALHAMBRA

Knights of Columbus Initiate Members Into Order.

NOT ALL SECRETS DIVULGED

Members and Delegates of Catholic Body Will Visit Mount Vernon This Morning with Luncheon at Rauscher's in Afternoon—Trip to Baltimore This Evening.

Mystery in large bunches hung about the doors of Rauscher's last night, where a class of nineteen neophytes was treated to an inquisitorial process, and given the degree of the Order of the Alhambra of the United States, Canada, and Mexico. So in robes of Arabic splendor stepped softly through the corridors, but what they did or how they did it is not for the public to know, and far be it from a newspaper to give away secrets.

The men who were initiated are: W. E. Pierce, Arthur E. Marsh, Judge Thomas H. Callan, Robert C. Neilligan, Frank J. Dunn, John H. Clipper, Richard L. Lamb, Rev. William J. Carroll, Dr. John H. Burch, Maurice F. Flynn, William P. Kenealy, James A. Cahill, Harry R. Carroll, James M. Walsh, Redmond Devaney, Edw. J. McQuade, Dr. Francis B. Bishop, William T. Burns, and Charles R. Murray.

Sat at a Banquet.

Following the initiation, about 200 members of the organization sat at a banquet at which the oases between courses were short and fertile with yams and songs. After the feasting speeches were made, telling the experiences of the older members at their initiation. Among those at the board were James P. Sullivan, Peter J. Skelly, John J. Keough, James J. Hopkins, T. J. Sullivan, Michael L. Monaghan, J. P. Judge, W. A. Burns, G. E. Lanagan, grand commanders, Abderahman, No. 1, Brooklyn, N. Y., Peter P. McLoughlin, Alcantara, No. 2, Canton, Ohio, W. E. Melchior, Alhamar, No. 4, Wilkesbarre, Pa., E. A. Sweeney, Alcantara, No. 5, Augusta, Ga., A. J. Gouley, Alcantara, No. 6, Middletown, Conn., W. M. Robinson, El-zaghal, No. 7, Newark, N. J., Joseph A. Harris, Abdallah, No. 8, Jersey City, N. J., Aloysius McMahon, Boubill, No. 9, Chicago, Ill., John W. Callahan, Al-kamal, No. 10, Cincinnati, Ohio, George B. Quinn, Glibel-attar, No. 11, New York, N. Y., Timothy J. Sullivan, Alcantara, No. 12, Washington, D. C., W. P. Malone, Vega, No. 13, Albany, N. Y., W. J. McMahon, Asturias, No. 14, New Haven, Conn., James J. Kennedy, Al-hakem, No. 15, Stamford, Conn., John A. Waters, Al-ala, No. 16, Baltimore, Md., E. P. McDewitt, Wad-aa, No. 17, Toledo, Ohio, L. E. Florey, and Dr. Morrissey, San Francisco; Dr. T. J. Phillips, Canton, Ohio, and Frank M. Brand, Harrisburg, Pa.

Officers in Attendance.

The following officers of Washington Chapter, Alcantara, No. 12, attended: Dr. W. P. Malone, grand commander; Dr. W. E. Patro, deputy grand commander; Julius Wenig, grand scribe; Harry Brook, scribe of the exchequer; B. L. Grove, grand chamberlain; Joe Culen, master of the oasis; Dr. Edward Collins, historian; Thomas Trodden, senior captain of the body guard; George Ogil, sentinel of the tower; William Simpson, sentinel of the desert; George Kolb, master of the wardrobe, and George R. Repetti, organizer.

This morning the members and delegates will visit Mount Vernon. Luncheon will be served at 2 o'clock at Rauscher's, and in the evening Alcala Caravan, No. 6, of Baltimore, will entertain at an oyster roast at the Maryland Yacht Club in the Monumental City. That will be the last event of the convention, and the members will disperse to their homes.

The last business session was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after which the delegates thought they could not do better than go on under the same administration. The following officers were re-elected: William M. Bennett, supreme commander; William A. Burns, vice supreme commander; James P. Sullivan, supreme scribe; Peter J. Skelly, supreme chamberlain; John J. Keough, supreme propagandist; George Lanagan, supreme captain of the guard, and the following members of the Council of Vizers: George R. Repetti, of Vizers; T. J. Sullivan, Dr. E. A. Sweeney, Anton Nebaur, and James P. Judge.

Albany Gets Convention.

Albany, N. Y., was chosen as the place of convention two years hence.

The Order of the Alhambra is three years old. It was organized through the instrumentality of Supreme Commander Bennett, in Brooklyn. All members must be Knights of Columbus. While the order is primarily for pleasure, it has two serious purposes—to promote the erection of homes for Knights of Columbus bodies, and to perpetuate Catholic places of historical interest. The reports read showed that 70 per cent of the Knights of Columbus bodies in the United States owned their own houses, and that applications for charters in the Alhambrian order have been received in large numbers.

The supreme officer elected yesterday that although they have traveled the country over, and have attended many conventions, they have never had a better time than the one Washington has shown them.

Social Will Be Given.

Acorn Camp, No. 4, Boys of Woodcraft, will give an entertainment and ice cream social on Tuesday evening, October 19, in their hall at Eighth and I streets northeast. An excellent program has been prepared. Refreshment will be on sale in the hall.

FLOWERS GIVEN AWAY.

Z. D. Blackstone Observing Twelfth Anniversary of Establishment.

The unusual display of dahlias was the feature of the twelfth anniversary observance Saturday of Z. D. Blackstone, in the florist business in Washington. Bouquets of these and other flowers are to be given out to-day, to-morrow, and Friday of this week to all visitors in commemoration of the successful season just past.

Organizing his business in 1897, with a capital of $10, Mr. Blackstone has succeeded in building up one of the strongest florist's establishments in the city. From a small store on Fourteenth street, in two years he was able to move into his present building.

Mr. Blackstone attributes much of his success to judicious advertising, and is a firm believer in publicity. Among his customers are numbered diplomats, cabinet officers, and members of Congress, and at the time of Miss Alice Roosevelt's wedding, he was asked personally to make a bridal bouquet.

One of the features is the great popularity of the Saturday sales, which are so arranged that persons in ordinary circumstances can get a suitable bouquet for 25 and 50 cents, and the crowds that throng the store at these times prove the popularity of the sales.

Services Are Ended.

Closing exercises of the forty-hour devotion took place last night at the Immaculate Conception Church, following the regular meeting of the Society of the Blessed Virgin. Rev. Ambrose Brown was celebrant, and Rev. Fathers Marsh and Connelly, deacon and subdeacon, respectively. After the procession and the chanting of the Hymn, the ceremonies concluded with solemn benediction. The mass was given by the choir of male voices, with Harry Winston Howard at the organ. Officers chosen for the year are: Henry Berens, prefect; Mrs. Gavin, first assistant; Mrs. Justin McCarthy, second assistant; Miss Katharine Brennan, secretary. Rev. Eugene Connelly will continue as spiritual director.

First Meeting Held.

The board of lady managers of St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum held the first meeting of the season yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, with Miss Helen Sheddley, president, in the chair. Among the members present were Mrs. Fenwick, secretary; Mrs. Schelling, Mrs. Edward O. Pomey, Mrs. M. I. Walker, Miss Kate Callan, Miss Frances Joyce, Miss Margaret Shea, and Mrs. Duane Hannan. Plans were discussed for getting the nucleus of a library for the boys of the asylum.
